

Dun Faded My Genes
AQHA #4467615
2012 Local AI with Boarding Contract

Name and Reg. No. of Mare _____
Mare's Nickname: _____

Fees: Mare owner agrees to breed stated mare to stallion identified above for the 2012 breeding season. The stallion service fee is $1000.00 which includes a non refundable booking fee of $200.00 payable with this contract and the first collection and shipping. The balance is to be paid in full prior to stallion collection. If additional collections are needed the fee will be $250.00 per collection.

Season: Breeding season begins March 1, 2012 and ends July 31, 2012. Contact us for alternate date consideration.

Boarding: See attached contract

Vet Expenses: Mare owner is responsible for all veterinary expenses directly and indirectly related to the Insemination of the stated mare. Mare owner must have payment arrangements with Town & Country Equine Hospital prior to mare arriving at the boarding facility. The Flying Moose will verify arrangements with T&C prior to receiving mare. Once all services have been rendered by T&C mare owner has one of two options: (1) pick up the mare and have a licensed equine veterinarian determine pregnancy status between 12-18 days or (2) mare will remain at boarding facility until verified in foal. Mare will not be permitted to leave the boarding facility until Town & Country Equine Hospital issues a billing release to be presented at time of pick-up.

Mare Owner Responsibilities: Mare owner is responsible for (1) mare to be healthy, free of infection; (2) in breeding sound condition; (3) timely delivery of mare to facility; (4) all fees incurred at facility directly related to mare insemination to include board, examinations(s), medication(s), and AI procedure. Person signing this contract is the recorded mare owner or authorized agent of the mare named above.

Return Breeding: The Flying Moose guarantees a live foal only if mare is (1) examined by a licensed equine veterinarian and (2) is determined to be in foal by licensed equine veterinarian and (3) mare owner notifies The Flying Moose via email of pregnancy status at 16 days and again at 90 days. Non compliance may result in the loss of the option to re-breed and forfeiture of all monies paid.

Should the mare abort or the foal is stillborn, the mare owner must contact The Flying Moose within 48 hours of death and a veterinarian's certificate must be received within 10 days. The mare owner has the option of breeding the same mare the following season to the same stallion without stallion fees incurred but mare owner/rep will be responsible for shipping fees. The Flying Moose reserves the right to decline a re-breed and refund the stallion service fee less the booking fee to the mare owner/rep .

All return breeding rights and fees are automatically forfeited if (1) mare is bred to any other stallion prior to the re-breed or (2) mare owner/rep chooses not to re-breed the following season or (3) if mare owner fails to pay all fees and expenses.

Warranty: Stallion manager make no warranty or guarantee that stallion will be available for collection within a certain time period. Mare owner understands that stallion semen is available on a first-come, first served basis. While every effort will be made to AI mare with viable semen, the stallion manager makes no guarantee that the semen will safely reach the insemination point without losing integrity, quality or characteristics. Stallion manger/owner is not responsible for lost, stolen or damaged containers.

Guarantee: Stallion owner guarantees foal from resulting insemination will not be Sorrel, Chestnut, Bay or Black. If such color should arise, stallion owner agree to re-breed the contracted mare with no stallion fees incurred but does not include shipping fees.

Liability: Mare owner agrees to diligently try to settle mare. If, however, mare fails to settle, mare owner agrees to hold harmless and release stallion owner and affiliated persons. Mare owner agrees stallion owner and affiliated persons shall not be responsible for any disease, injury, death or accident to the mare and/or foal.

Certificates and Substitutions: Breeder's certificates will be issued when The Flying Moose has been notified that stated mare has foaled and all bills incurred by mare owner have been paid. Mare owner is solely responsible for seeking registration of the resulting foal. If mare dies or becomes unfit for breeding, the mare owner may use a re-breed the following season with an approved substitute mare under the same conditions stated in this contract. The Flying Moose reserves the right to refuse any substitution.

Miscellaneous: This contract is non-assignable and non-transferable. Mare owner acknowledges that should the stallion die or become unfit for service after the mare is pronounced in foal, the stallion owner shall not be in breach of this contract and is released from all further responsibility. Mare owner further agrees that should stallion die or become permanently unfit for service prior to mare being inseminated, any monies paid toward stallion fee (less booking fee of $200) shall be refunded to the mare owner/rep.
